A growing person is self-renewing . . .
as new as each new day . . .

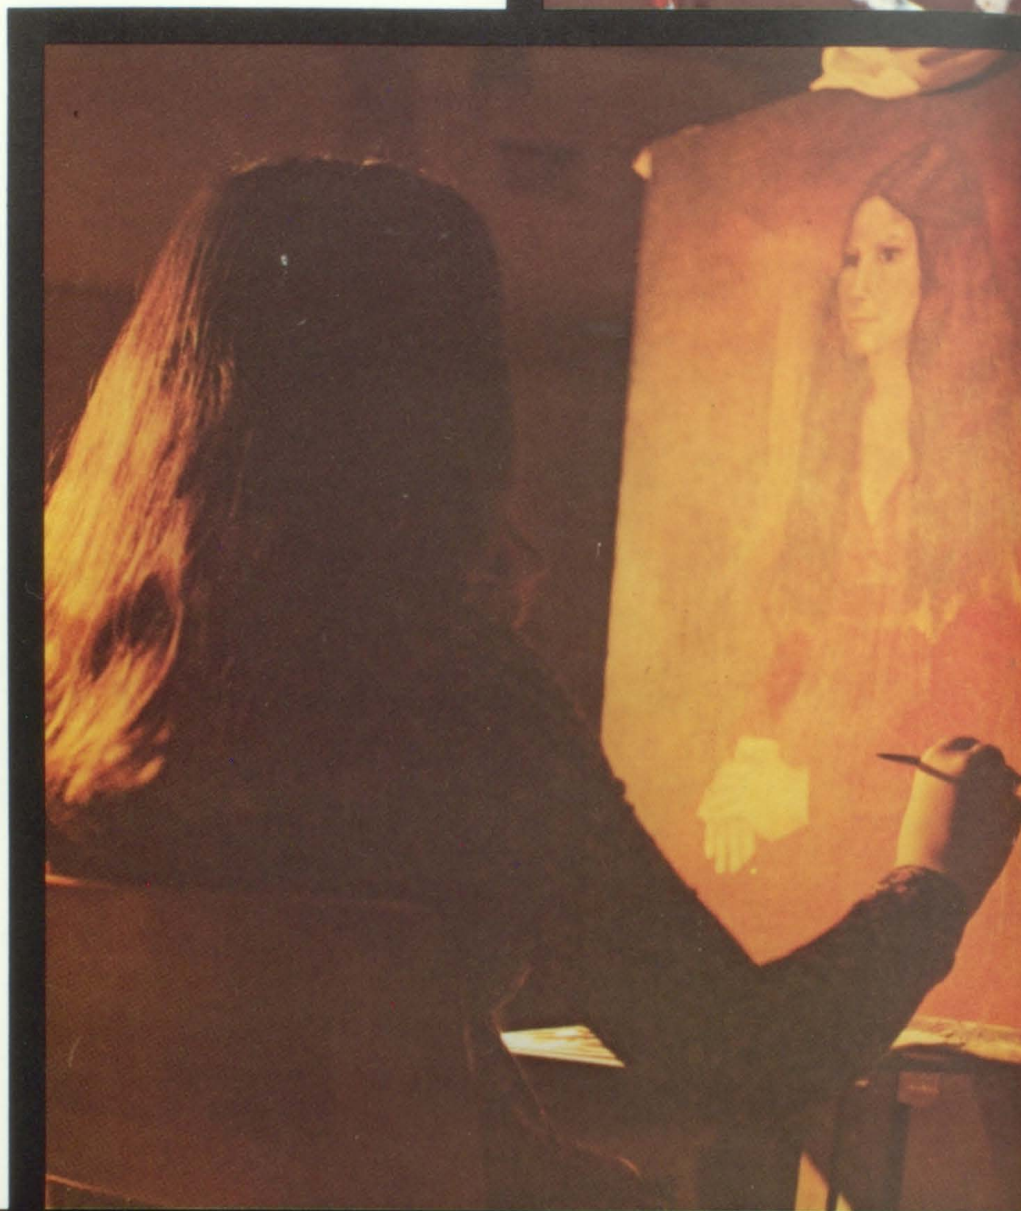

Study his face and hands,

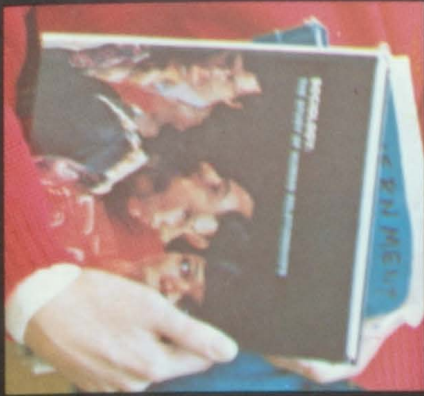

Listen to his voice . . .
Look for change . . .

it is certain he has changed

1972-73 . . . a time of change; a time of growth. Less student dissension occurred on college campuses, President Nixon was re-elected, the Viet Nam War ended, prisoners of war returned home and peace was lost at the summer Olympics. At HHS a metamorphosis took place. Tradition gave way to the emerging individual; a more diversified curriculum and a work study program were established to better meet the needs of the students. 1973 was a year of growing and becoming.

The segment in our lives when we were students of Hoisington High School is over. A new stage in the process of metamorphosis is begun. We no longer are a class, a single entity; we are individuals growing and becoming. When you look back on 1973, know that it was your year . . . and know that it was good.

RANDY BETZ
Dec. 17, 1957 to
Oct. 7, 1972

He once was free,
But now he's even more free.
He once was needed here,
But God must have needed him more.
He once was my brother
But now he is a package of memories,
He once was loved,
And he still is.
